2. Summary

- 2.1 At the beginning of the municipal year each select committee is required to draw up a work programme for submission to the Overview and Scrutiny Business Panel. The Panel considers the suggested work programmes and coordinates activities between select committees in order to maximise the use of scrutiny resources and avoid duplication.
- 2.2 The meeting on 9 March is the last scheduled meeting of the Safer Stronger Communities Select Committee in the 2015-16 municipal year. The Committee's completed work programme is attached at appendix B; it lists the issues considered in 2015-16. The Committee is being asked to put forward suggestions for the 2016-17 work programme.

- note the completed work programme attached at appendix B;

 - take note of the notice of key decisions attached at appendix C;
 - consider any matters arising that it may wish to suggest for future scrutiny.

It is anticipated that all scrutiny committees will be tasked with reviewing further Lewisham Future Programme proposals in the 2016-17 municipal year.

4.3 The Committee's completed work programme is attached at appendix B.

5. Planning for 2016-17

5.1 Eight meetings will be scheduled for 2016-17 municipal year. The report will take account of the Committee's previous work and may incorporate:

6. Financial implications

There are no financial implications arising from the implementation of the recommendations in this report. There will be financial implications arising from items on the agenda; these will need to be considered, as necessary.

7. Legal implications

In accordance with the Council's Constitution, all scrutiny select committees must devise and submit a work programme to the Business Panel at the start of each municipal year.

8. Equalities implications

8.1 The Equality Act 2010 brought together all previous equality legislation in England, Scotland and Wales. The Act included a new public sector equality duty, replacing the separate duties relating to race, disability and gender equality. The duty came into force on 6 April 2011. It covers the following nine protected characteristics: age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation.

8.2 The Council must, in the exercise of its functions, have due regard to the need to:

- eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Act
- advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.
- foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.

8.3 There may be equalities implications arising from items on the work programme and all activities undertaken by the Select Committee will need to give due consideration to this.
