PROTECTIVE MARKING

I appeal as grounds for Reviewing the Licence under The Prevention of Crime and Disorder, Protection of Public Safety and Prevention of Public Nuisance.

I relate my findings after visiting the Premises having found serious Failings and Breaches to Licensing Conditions on Annex 2, on a recent visit. They relate to Breaches found and even after engaging with Premises and finding that consistent Breaches being found and when using the stepped approach in order to advise and educate the Licence Holder and still consistently finding Breaches and promises that are not being met. There is a loss of trust between Police and Premises Management in being able to run a responsible business that is having a massive impact on the Community around it and finding Failings under Preventions of Crime and Disorder. This in turn is also leading to the public being put at risk and safety to customers using the premises. Systematic failings to control the premises leads to failings put at risk Licensing Objectives.
