Wellbeing

What is wellbeing? The Care Act looks at wellbeing through the following lenses:

- Personal dignity. Being treated with respect and maintaining your own self-worth.
- Having good mental health, physical health, and emotional wellbeing.
- Being safe from abuse and neglect.
- Having control over your day-to-day life.
- Being involved in work, education, training, or leisure activities.
- Not being isolated.
- Having good domestic, family, and personal relationships.
- Having a safe and secure home.
- Being part of society

All the above wellbeing areas are equally important and this implementation plan aims to address each of these areas through the lens of 'every action will have a tangible impact on your life'
