The Young Mayor of Lewisham

On 24 March 2004 the Council endorsed the Mayor's decisions on the proposal to set up and fund the office of an annually elected Young Mayor.

The Mayor also agreed to set up an advisory group of between 12 to 30 young people to support the Young Mayor. These young people will also serve for a 1 year period and will be drawn from school councils and other representative forums from across the borough. The membership will have a degree of flexibility to allow for co-options for particular areas of interest. The group will also allow for non-successful young mayoral candidates to participate.

The Young Mayor will be an adviser to both the Mayor and to the Council as a whole, bringing a young person's perspective to issues of interest. The Young Mayor will, through various programmes have access to a wider cross section of young people's views and will be able to reflect these where appropriate. The Young Mayor will also advise the Children and Young People's Strategic Partnership Board; and be at the forefront of the framework for youth participation in the borough.

The election for a Young Mayor for 2017/18 was held on October 11 2017 with 25 candidates on the ballot paper. As a result, on an increased turnout of 54.64%, the second highest ever and in the second closest ever election, Laurelle Henry was elected Young Mayor for the year 2017/18. She will be the 14th Young Mayor and third female to serve in this position. This will be the first year there has been a female Young Mayor serving with a male Deputy Young Mayor.

The candidate with the second highest number of votes, Edafese Erhenede, will act as her Deputy Mayor during her year of office. The third and fourth placed candidates, Abdul-Rehman Javed and Shemar Stewart will represent the Borough at the UK Youth Parliament.

A Code of Conduct for the Young Mayor and the Deputy Mayor is attached as an Appendix.

Both the Young Mayor and the appointed Deputy Mayor have been invited to attend the meeting to sign their Declaration of Acceptance of Office, and an undertaking that they will abide by the Code of Conduct for their respective offices, which will be witnessed by the Chief Executive. An invitation to attend the meeting has also been extended to the members of the Advisory Group who will support the Young Mayor during her year of office.
