““We welcome the Mayor’s decision with regards to the Ladywell Playtower redevelopment. We are pleased that Ladywell will now have a cinema and at the same time Picturehouse, a corporation currently involved in attempts at strike-breaking in a major dispute with its workers, has not been welcomed into Lewisham. We support and send our solidarity to the Picturehouse workers’ campaign for the London Living Wage, union recognition, improved working conditions and the reinstatement of their sacked BECTU trade union reps at the Ritzy. We note that Curzon cinemas, having granted to their staff the London Living Wage and union recognition, now seems to be attempting to chisel away at its wage rates. We support the Curzon workers’ campaign against this and call on their employer to respect its commitment to pay at least the London Living Wage.”
