

PART A of APPENDIX 1

Commences from page 30 of the Council's Constitution

ARTICLE 6 OVERVIEW AND SCRUTINY

6.1 One overview and scrutiny committee

Subject to the exception set out in this paragraph 6.1, the Council will appoint one overview and scrutiny committee consisting of all members of the Council who are not members of the Executive, provided that this composition complies with the political balance requirements of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989. If that is not possible, or if there is not unanimous agreement at the Annual General Meeting to such arrangements in any year, then the Council will decide on the composition of this committee so as to give the widest possible membership to the committee, but excluding members of the Executive.

Members appointed to the Executive may not sit on the Overview & Scrutiny Committee and any Member who is appointed by the Mayor to serve on the Executive for any part of a year may not thereafter serve as a member of Overview and Scrutiny Committee or its Sub Committees during that municipal year.

6.2 The role of the overview and scrutiny committee

The overview and scrutiny committee will be responsible for the overview and scrutiny of functions in accordance with the Local Government Act 2000 as amended but may not carry out any other functions unless relevant legislation is brought into effect to the contrary.

The law requires that the overview and scrutiny committee must have power to recommend that a decision which is the responsibility of the executive which has been made but not implemented be reconsidered by the decision-maker (or to arrange for the full Council to review such a decision). In this Constitution these powers are referred to as 'call-in'. The operation of call in is dealt with under the heading 'Conflict Resolution' at Article 8.

The law also requires that, subject to certain exceptions, members of the Council may refer relevant matters to the overview and scrutiny committee, or an overview and scrutiny select committee, or Business Panel. This is dealt with in Section E of Part IV below.

Any matters which must by law be carried out by an overview and scrutiny committee, but are not delegated to a select committee, shall be the responsibility of the Overview and Scrutiny Committee.

6.3 Overview and scrutiny arrangements

The overview and scrutiny committee will meet at least once per year to appoint the sub-committees set out in Column 1 of Table 1 below, each of which will have membership as set out in the corresponding entry in Column 2. With the exception of the Business Panels, the following sub committees will be known as select committees. Every member of the overview and scrutiny committee must serve on at least one of its sub-committees.

The delegation of functions by the Overview and Scrutiny Committee to its Select Committees does not prevent exercise of those functions by the Overview and Scrutiny Committee.

The petition may be submitted to the Council either on paper or by means of e-petition. The scheme sets out the possible responses which are available to the Council.

6.5 The role of the select committees and the Business Panels

In relation to the activities within their remit, the select committees and the Business Panel will all carry out the roles set out in paragraph 6.6 (a) – (f) below.

However nothing in this Article allows the select committees to exercise any power of call in on behalf of the Overview and Scrutiny Committee. Nor are the select committees authorised to take any action permitting the Executive to take urgent decisions without call in procedures applying. These exempted functions may be exercised on behalf of the main Overview and Scrutiny Committee only by its Business Panels, (and the Chair of that Panel where the law and the Constitution so provide) or the Education Business Panel whose terms of reference are limited to the exercise of call-in powers on matters relating wholly or partly to any education functions which are the responsibility of the Executive.

Nothing in this arrangement inhibits the right of every member of a select committee (or the Business Panel) to place an item on the agenda of that select committee (or Business Panel respectively) for discussion.
- The Council and the Executive will also be able to request that an overview and scrutiny select committee research and/or report on matters of concern and the select committee will consider whether the work can be carried out as requested.
