

APPENDIX 1 – Protocol on Conferring the Title of Honorary Aldermen to Ex-Members of the Authority

The Local Government Act 1972 gives principal councils the power to confer the title of 'Honorary Alderman' (or 'Honorary Alderwoman') on persons who have, in the opinion of the council, rendered eminent services to the council as past members of that council, but who are no longer members of the council. The act does not specify how eminent services are defined, and this is left as a matter of local interpretation. Therefore it is suggested the criteria to be used to select Honorary Aldermen for appointment are:

- (1) The title of Honorary Alderman can only be conferred to an ex-member of the authority.
- (2) Honorary Aldermen must have served 12 years in total on the Council.
- (3) This service does not have to be consecutive.
- (4) Nominations may be made while the proposed Honorary Alderman is still a member of the authority once it has been confirmed they will not be standing for election again. However the appointment of Honorary Alderman can only be made once they are no longer a member of the authority.
- (5) Should an Honorary Alderman subsequently be re-elected to the Council, the award will be held in abeyance during the period of direct service.

Appointment of Honorary Aldermen

Appointments of Honorary Aldermen must take place at a Council meeting specially convened for the purpose. This meeting will take place before the first full council meeting of the municipal year following the Council's AGM. Two thirds of the members present at the meeting must vote in favour of a resolution for the nominee to be appointed as an Honorary Alderman.

An Honorary Alderman may speak once the vote has taken place in order to accept the honour.

An Honorary Alderman will be given a certificate confirming the title, and their name will be placed on an honours board in the Civic Suite.

Rights of Honorary Aldermen

The title of Honorary Alderman does not confer any special privileges or rights upon the appointee to speak or vote at Council meetings, beyond the rights and privileges already afforded to the public.

The only rights that are conferred to an Honorary Alderman by virtue of their appointment is to be invited to Civic functions and events by invitation of the Council. The Council will decide which Civic functions and events it is appropriate to invite Honorary Aldermen to.

Removal of Title of Honorary Alderman

There may be occasions where, due to the past or future behaviour of individuals who have been appointed as Honorary Aldermen, the Council may wish to remove the title of Honorary Alderman from an individual.

Removal of the title of Honorary Alderman will follow the same process as appointment (nomination by the Speaker, Mayor or 5 Councillors, and then a resolution of two thirds of those present must be passed), however it may take place at any meeting of Full Council rather than a specially convened meeting.
